

Profile

Ragna works as coach and supports other human beings to become aware that the solution to any challenge is within themselves. She brings coaching and reflection to people as well as to organisations, catalysing their self-development. Having worked over 20 years as a leading professional in Investor Relations, she realised that raising questions is sometimes more helpful and supportive than knowing the answer.

Ragna Kirberg

Lecturer in Coaching and Behavioural Change

Ragna holds a degree from the University of St. Gallen, Switzerland as well as two coaching certificates, including the Professional Certificate in Coaching of Henley. Having worked with and learned from experienced people in the field of coaching and systemic work since 2008, she has delivered a variety of programmes and has been part of the Henley team since 2014.

Experiencing the value of authenticity, respect and appreciation became a core driver for her, supporting to find consensus instead of compromise.

Where business comes to life